Legend of East Timor

Student worksheet 7

The crocodile story

Many years ago a small crocodile lived in a swamp in a far away place. He dreamed of becoming a big crocodile but as food was scarce, he became weak and grew sadder and sadder.

He left for the open sea, to find food and realise his dream, but the day became increasingly hot and he was still far from the seashore. The little crocodile – rapidly drying out and now in desperation – lay down to die.

A small boy took pity on the stranded crocodile and carried him to the sea. The crocodile, instantly revived, was grateful. 'Little boy', he said, 'you have saved my life. If I can ever help you in any way, please call me. I will be at your command ...'

A few years later, the boy called the crocodile, who was now big and strong. 'Brother Crocodile', he said, 'I too have a dream. I want to see the world'.

'Climb on my back,' said the crocodile, 'and tell me, which way do you want to go?'

'Follow the sun', said the boy.

The crocodile set off for the east, and they travelled the oceans for years, until one day the crocodile said to the boy, 'Brother, we have been travelling for a long time. But now the time has come for me to die. In memory of your kindness, I will turn myself into a beautiful island, where you and your children can live until the sun sinks in the sea.'

As the crocodile died, he grew and grew, and his ridged back became the mountains and his scales the hills of Timor.

Now when the people of East Timor swim in the ocean, they enter the water saying 'Don't eat me crocodile, I am your relative.'

Q1: Cut out and re-order the following text from the story in the correct sequence.

 'Climb on my back,' said the crocodile, 'and tell me, which way do you want to go?'

Let's cook!

Student worksheet 8

Recipe – Tau Koi Rana

Let's cook a simple meal from Timor Leste.

Ingredients

- > 1 pumpkin
- > Can of 'lite' coconut milk
- > Ground corn (polenta) • Salt

Method:

1. Peel and cube the pumpkin and place in a saucepan.
2. Cover with coconut milk.
3. Put lid on and cook gently until the pumpkin is very soft.
4. Mash with potato masher.
5. Add enough ground corn (polenta) to thicken the mixture to the texture of mashed potato.
6. Cook slightly, stirring so it does not stick.
7. Add salt to taste.

Serving suggestion

Though the people of Com, near Los Palos, may eat this on its own as a staple food, it makes a good accompaniment to fish or meat with rice, vegetables or salad.

Mache!

(This means Eat! in the Fataluku language of Timor-Leste's Lautem District.)
